CUMMING NAMED HIGHEST RANKED CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT FIRM IN SAN DIEGO, BY ENGINEERING NEWS-RECORD

Focus on Client Service Spurs Nationwide Growth during Unstable Economy

SAN DIEGO - (June 17, 2013) – Cumming, an international project management and cost consulting firm, announced today it was ranked highest among all San Diego-based construction management firms by leading trade publication, Engineering News-Record (ENR).

The Top 100 Construction Management-for-Fee list, published annually, ranks the 100 largest U.S. construction firms, both publicly and privately held, based on fees for agency construction management projects.

“Focusing on serving the best interest of the owner through the delivery of industry leading project controls and consistently delivering the highest quality services has allowed Cumming to grow, even during today’s economy,” said Peter Heald, President at Cumming. “Being the highest ranked San Diego-based construction management firm speaks volumes about our talented team and the work we do on behalf of our clients.”

Specializing in program, project, construction, and cost management services, the firm’s nationwide portfolio focuses on serving the Education, Healthcare and Hospitality sectors. Cumming’s work includes more than 2,000 education projects with a combined construction value of more than $15 billion; nearly 1,000 hotel, resort, gaming and timeshare projects worth over $50 billion; and more than $15 billion in public and private sector healthcare projects around the world.

Engineering News-Record provides news, analysis, commentary and data for construction industry professionals. ENR connects diverse sectors of the industry with information on issues such as business management, design, construction methods, technology, safety, law, legislation, environment and labor.

Cumming was first named to Engineering News-Record’s Top 100 Construction Management for Fee list in 2005, and continues to receive the honor, ranking in the top 40 nationally every year since 2008. Among U.S. firms who are strictly Owner’s Representatives, Cumming consistently ranks in the top 10.
