CUMMING AWARDED PROJECT AND CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT SERVICES FOR UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SAN FRANCISCO WEST CAMPUS LOCATIONS

SAN FRANCISCO – (June 25, 2014) – Cumming, an international project management and cost consulting firm, announced today it has been awarded a contract to provide Project and Construction Management services for the University of California, San Francisco’s Parnassus Campus.

Under the UCSF Capital Programs contract, Cumming will be responsible for the management of multiple projects on the Parnassus Campus and will ensure that each stay within the proposed budget and schedule through the use of proven practices on behalf of the University.

“With a successful and long-standing track record working with UCSF, coupled with Cumming’s extensive education sector experience, we are confident in our ability to surpass expectations during the Parnassus Campus Seismic Program,” said Fergus O’Shea, Vice President of Project Management at Cumming Corporation.

Cumming’s San Francisco-based team specializes in program, project and cost management, as well as program controls. They possess extensive experience on the West Coast and have provided their full range of services to California education clients for nearly 20 years. On a national level, Cumming has worked on more than 600 public and private community college and university projects, totaling more than $10 billion in construction work.
