FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CUMMING NAMED TOP WORKPLACE BY SAN DIEGO UNION-TRIBUNE, WORKPLACEDYNAMICS

SAN DIEGO - (Nov. 8, 2013) – Cumming, an international project management and cost consulting firm, announced that it has been named to The San Diego Union-Tribune's Top Workplaces list for 2013. Cumming was the only San Diego employer in the construction management industry to make the coveted 2013 Top Workplaces list.

Top Workplaces recognizes outstanding businesses based solely on employee feedback through an in-depth survey, which acknowledges employers that foster great company culture and work environments. Companies are measured on several qualities such as company leadership, career opportunities, workplace flexibility, compensation and benefits.

"Providing a supportive work environment with ongoing growth opportunities encourage better client service and performance," said Peter Heald, President at Cumming. "We put a lot of effort into fostering a culture that not only demands superior service, but also gives back to our team members through frequent social activities and events."

Specializing in program, project, construction, and cost management services, Cumming's nationwide portfolio focuses on serving the Education, Healthcare and Hospitality sectors. The firm has more than 100 assignments underway at any given time, and has worked on projects worldwide with a collective value in excess of $100 billion.

In partnership with the San Diego Union-Tribune, the confidential Top Workplaces employee survey was administered by WorkplaceDynamics, LLP.
