INTERNATIONAL CONSTRUCTION CONSULTANCY CUMMING ANNOUNCES STRATEGIC ALLIANCE WITH INTERCONTINENTAL CONSULTANTS AND TECHNOCRATS PVT. LTD. TO STRENGTHEN CAPABILITIES IN INFRASTRUCTURE

Dubai, United Arab Emirates - 18 April 2017 - Cumming, an international construction project management and cost consulting firm, announced today that it has entered into a strategic alliance with New Delhi-based Intercontinental Consultants and Technocrats (ICT) to help expand the firm's growing global footprint.

The partnership brings together Cumming's international cost and project management capabilities with ICT's engineering infrastructure expertise to provide a greater range of planning, design and construction services for clients across multiple sectors and regions including Africa, Asia Pacific, Europe, the Middle East and Americas.

Alastair Burns, International President at Cumming states, "The Cumming and ICT alliance brings together over 2000 people around the world with tremendous synergy and introduces an exciting new range of combined capabilities and complementary skills. The strategic alliance allows us to offer clients unmatched services across broader business lines and specifically address any infrastructure needs. Cumming brings its wide experience in hospitality, healthcare, themed entertainment and gaming to the table to complement ICT's strong infrastructure and planning skills. Geographically, both companies benefit through wider reach into new territories and regions."

Prashant Kapila, President and Chief Operating Officer from ICT continues, "For over three decades, ICT has provided clients a full spectrum of innovative, creative and technologically sustainable infrastructure solutions. We look forward to our partnership with Cumming and the growth of our combined businesses."

Together, Cumming and ICT will offer clients, both new and existing, a collective 50 years of experience, thousands of consultancy projects successfully completed or currently in progress, with a combined construction value to date of well over US$180 billion.
