CONSTRUCTION CONSULTANCY SEES CONTINUED GROWTH IN CALIFORNIA, PROMOTES KEY REGIONAL LEADERSHIP

LOS ANGELES – FEB. 22, 2019 – After working in California for more than 20 years, Cumming, an international construction consultancy based in Los Angeles, continues to find success with its owner-first approach, seeing double digit growth and revenue topping $50 million in the region – and nearly $150 million companywide – for 2018.

Cumming is currently providing project management services for the Los Angeles Unified School District, Kaiser Permanente, San Manuel Band of Mission Indians, Music Center of L.A. County, Long Beach Unified School District, and Marriott International, and cost management for a variety of Southern California clients across various sectors.

“The delivery of each project on budget, on schedule, and on quality is our primary goal - and our team of project and cost management experts pride themselves on being a client’s biggest advocate,” said Mike Jensen, chief operating officer at Cumming. “It’s that client-focused mindset and dedication to finding creative solutions for unique construction challenges that keeps our team growing and our clients coming back.”

The continued growth has led to several leadership promotions and new hires throughout California, including Mark D. Fergus, regional director for cost and project management services; Jeff Mazmanian, operations director for private project management; Mark Salmon, operations director of cost management in Los Angeles; Trevor Shulters, director of cost management in Los Angeles; and Brooks Rehkopf, managing director of cost management based out of the San Diego office.

Experts in construction project and cost management services, Cumming has assembled a diverse portfolio that includes an array of work in the healthcare, education, commercial, hospitality, retail, entertainment, and high-end residential sectors. The firm has more than 400 assignments underway at any given time and has worked on projects worldwide with a collective value exceeding $150 billion.
